

Sprout

What is Sprout?

A Catalyst...

...that brings students together on one platform

An Application...

...for helping new students reach out to upperclassmen

An Opportunity...

...to give new students a personalized college experience

Background

College is an exciting experience

However, much of the experience is trial and error

Guidance and advice from someone who already has this experience can help new students:

- Ease into this new lifestyle
- Become more familiar with their campus

How can Sprout help?

- Allows all students to find each other on one platform
- Students can register to be mentors, mentees, or both
- New students or underclassmen can discover profiles of experienced students
- Mentees can request those upperclassmen to be their mentor for a two week time period

How does Sprout work?

- Upon making their account on Sprout, students can fill out their profile
- Students can choose to register as a mentor, mentee, or both
- Students have access to a discover page to find mentees or mentors
- They can request other students to be their mentor or mentee
- Students can communicate using the chat function

Who can be a Mentee and who can be a Mentor?

- Students can be both!
- A student can choose to offer guidance to someone or continue to learn from others with experiences they want to know more about
- A student can upgrade from Mentee to Mentor later on

How can mentees use Sprout?

- Mentees can view mentor profiles on Discover
- Expand the profile card to learn more about each mentor
 - Mentees look for someone with seniority
 - The grade level can help determine this
 - The major is relevant to a mentee in the same major
 - Mentees also look for someone they can connect with in terms of personality
 - The fun facts and the mentor's summary of their experience can help determine this
- They can chat and send mentee requests to mentors

How can mentors use Sprout?

- Mentors can view the mentee tab in Discover to view student profiles
 - Mentors look for newer students that are seeking the experiences that they already have
 - They also look at the same personality criteria as mentees do to them to determine if they are compatible
- They can chat with mentees
- Mentors can send and receive requests
- Upon accepting the request, the mentorship lasts for two weeks
 - This mentorship period can be renewed up to 3 times

How can students connect?

- Through the chat function, Mentors and Mentees can communicate
- They can have conversations and schedule to meet up
 - Since it is on campus, this makes it easier for them to have more personal connections
 - In person interactions build stronger relationships
